

Christmas Wonderland
at King's Castle Theatre

The Live Music Show
Capital of the World!

Christmas in Branson

MAKE OZARK MOUNTAIN
CHRISTMAS A FAMILY TRADITION

Beginning November 1, Branson lights up with a glittering array of animated lighting displays, decorated Christmas trees, and cheerful holiday spirits. Best of all, the “live music show capital of the world” presents an awesome array of elaborate holiday productions from Branson’s star performers.

Music fills the air and peals of laughter roll through the theaters as Branson shares the holiday’s finest talent during a one-of-a-kind holiday experience. During November and December many of the shows create a unique presentation where you’ll find yourself catching the Christmas feeling. From classic carols to jazzy pop hits, the whole town is humming with a holiday vibe that keeps your heart beating and your hands clapping.

With over 100 shows playing morning, afternoon, and night you are able to see productions that are all Christmas all the time like the Hughes Brothers Christmas Show, Christmas Wonderland, Shoji Tabuchi, Andy Williams Christmas Show starring the Osmonds and the Lennons, Sanders Family Christmas, The Duttons, and more. There are also productions that share a mix of their ‘regular’ shows combined with special Christmas numbers like Legends In Concert, Grand Jubilee, Puttin’ On The Ritz, Daniel O’Donnell, and more.

NOVEMBER 1- DECEMBER 31
SHOWSINBRANSON.COM

Shoji Tabuchi
Christmas Show